IN A NINETEENTH CENTURY MILANESE BUILDING

Designer apartment

In the historical Brera district, a prestigious apartment in the exquisite nineteenth century building has been restored by Arassociati studio, preserving its composed elegance and its ability to surprise.

In the bathrooms, the design narrative revolves around the classic-contemporary style of the most iconic Devon&Devon collections.

Calibrated colour contrasts also apply to the guest bathrooms, whose architectural essentiality is animated by the timeless style of the Devon&Devon vanity units, floor coverings and sanitaryware.

In the black and white guest bathroom, the Etoile console is customised with the New Etoile washbasin.

The Season vanity unit, also here in a customised version, is ideal for stylish small spaces.

Preserving doors, ceilings and the surprising distribution of the spaces, the refined conservative restoration carried out by Arassociati preserves the original charm of the apartment intact.

The building's magnificent staircase is an emblem of the architect Caccia Dominioni's never predictable way of imagining living spaces, to whom we owe the re-designing of the common areas of the building.
