offering a surprisingly contemporary new take on sophisticated retro inspirations.

Its slender, poised legs, rounded profiles, semi-circular handles and central towel ring are all in brass, and available in a matt-protected satin brass finish, chrome, nickel, (glossy or satin) and light gold. The countertop basin is in fine white ceramic. Scottie comes in Deep Black, Intense Pink, Pure White, Cream and Warm Grey (all glossy) or with the exclusive Twill pattern (matt). Its materials, marble varieties and shades of finish can be further personalised on request.

With a width of 120 cm and a depth of 45 cm, its compact dimensions make Scottie the ideal solution for those with small bathrooms who insist on thinking big when it comes to unique, exclusive style.

Although it can also be purchased on its own, the new Scottie mirror has been designed to complement the vanity unit (sharing its same fluid lines, dimensions and proportions), and can also be supplied in matching finishes and colours.
